Successfully relaunched in-person programs following a one year hiatus
Collaborated with 7 community based organizations
Provided workshops for 6 local schools
Participated in Day in the Life of the Hudson River and City of Water Day
Developed and piloted a brand new program - The Lower East Side Food Project

Workshop Topics
Urban Ecology and Seed Balls
Trees of the Lower East Side
Urban Water Systems
East River Ecology
Natural Dyes
Foraged Mocktails
Green Infrastructure
Cyanotype and Watercolors + more!

A Few of Our Partners
Henry Street Settlement
Solar One at Stuy Cove
BioBus
Essex Market
GOLES
Loisaida
Bash the Trash

Highlights
- Successfully relaunched in-person programs following a one year hiatus
- Collaborated with 7 community based organizations
- Provided workshops for 6 local schools
- Participated in Day in the Life of the Hudson River and City of Water Day
- Developed and piloted a brand new program - The Lower East Side Food Project

By the Numbers
- Fishing Clinics
  - 10 clinics
  - 116 participants
- School/Camp Groups
  - 22 workshops
  - 11 school/community groups
  - 354 participants
- Food Justice - LES Food Project
  - 2 cohorts
  - 15 workshops
  - 15 participants
- Overall numbers, including special events
  - 60 workshops
  - 743 participants

Learn more at www.lesecologycenter.org/education